Yavapai College Commercial Driver Training FAQ's

• CDL Permit and Driving classes are offered in 8-week sessions. 2 in both the Fall (Aug-Dec) & Spring (Jan-May) Semesters, and 1 in the Summer Semester (June-July). Students meet in the classroom on the first day of the session for the required orientation, then students arrange a driving schedule with the instructor. We do not train students on Fridays; Saturdays; or Sundays.

• Tuition is $134 for CDT250 Commercial License Prep (in-state tuition), $3279 for CDT255 Behind the Wheel (in-state tuition).

• Financial aid is available. Complete the Financial Aid application at www.studentaid.gov and fill out the scholarship application form located in the portal under the "Students" tab and My Financial Aid. Additional information on how to complete the Financial Aid application can be found at https://www.yc.edu/v6/financial-aid/paying-for-college.html. For additional funding opportunities contact NACOG. VA Education Benefits may be applied.

• You must fill out an online application to be put on a CDL Waitlist, you must apply to be a student and get a YC ID number before you can fill out the application. The application can be found at https://yc.jotform.com/231227512697862 or at https://www.yc.edu/v6/schools/cate/driver.html, it will give you the information on how to apply.

• Once your application has been submitted, you will be put on the CDL Waitlist. You will be emailed with a "Next Steps" email explaining what you will need to do next. You will be contacted to register for the appropriate class depending on your situation and needs. Class sizes are extremely limited.

• You must have a current driver's license and a CDL Permit to get into the CDT 200 and 255 Classes, prior to the first day of class. For the CDT 250, it requires a valid and current driver's license to get into this class.

• You will need your original birth certificate and two other forms of ID to be able to obtain the CDL permit.

• Currently YC offers CDL Class A & Class B training and examination.

• If you have held a CDL and it has recently expired, and you want to get a new CDL, you will not have to complete the full training and can just do the CDL Exam. Contact CDL Instructors for costs. If you need a refresher before taking the exam, YC offers CDT200

Commercial Driver Refresher/Extender $268 (in-state tuition) in the 8-week sessions mentioned above.
